Rebecca Rice, LCSW joins Lovejoy Health Center

ALBION—The staff at Lovejoy Health Center will be welcoming Rebecca Rice, clinical social worker, to the practice in May. Rebecca obtained a master's in social work degree from the University of New England, ME in 2015. Previously she completed an undergraduate degree in Pharmacy at Massachusetts College of Pharmacy. She brings experience in outpatient and in-home settings.

Rebecca will be joining physician Dean Chamberlain, physician assistants Bobby Keith, Nikki Kimborowicz, and Cory Miller, family nurse practitioners Kaitlynn Read and Keiko Kurita, and clinical social worker Deb Daigle.

Lovejoy Health Center is part of HealthReach Community Health Centers, a group of eleven Federally Qualified Health Centers in Central and Western Maine. Dedicated providers deliver high quality medical and behavioral health care to citizens in over 80 rural communities. To ensure access to everyone, HealthReach accepts Medicare, MaineCare and major insurances. In addition, an Affordable Care Program is available to uninsured and underinsured residents as well as assistance with applications for programs that help with the cost of health care and medications including the Health Insurance Marketplace.

A private non-profit established in 1975, HealthReach is funded by patient fees, grants and by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of an award totaling $4,815,606 with 82.2 percent financed with non-governmental sources.
